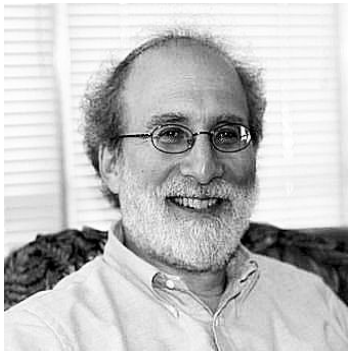
RABBI'S REFLECTIONS

The Audit



Rabbi Michael Rascoe

Elul is the Jewish calendar's last month. We close one year and prepare for another. In the business world, our inventories sink, we count them, summarize the last year, and analyze. Then we reorder, prepare reports, and forecast goals for next year and beyond. In Elul, we self-evaluate similarly. We, too, use external tools: we blow shofar and recite the penitential Psalm 27. We prepare for Rosh HaShanah's accounting.

As with firms, stockholding has good and bad points. We measure ourselves against the ideal and the reality of who we are and what we did. Did we improve, mature, realize our potential? Or did we backslide, lose sight of our goals, use inefficient means? How did we behave towards our spouses, parents, children? Did we treat our neighbors, friends, business associates well?

Did we pursue peace among family members and friends? Did we make a difference in the world? What about our religious life–did we let God enter our lives? Did we allow Judaism to help us? Did we observe our Jewishness so that we had a chance to receive its benefits? Will we repent if we do not measure up to our standards?

First, we take stock, see where we strayed. Next, we seek forgiveness. Selihot (Penitential Prayers) and Kever Avot (cemetery visit) are a start. Then, we make amends. We not only "feel badly;" we act differently. True repentance, Maimonides says, is to withstand the same temptation. Or, we are like Snuffy Smith, who forswears gambling, resists his normal pursuits, like cards; and fishes, where he bets on his catch. And Lucy, who pulls away the football from Charlie Brown as he goes to kick it.

How will our year end? Which path will we follow next year? We have time–all year, really – to close our year. Yom Kippur is the only set time for stocktaking. If we do not set a time, most of us would never get around to it. Elul is the warning bell – set at not two minutes but almost two months. Which way we go depends on whether we listen to the bell, the shofar. If we listen, we hear in "Elul" the correct choice to make. Elul backwards reads "lule," "had I not." This echoes the Penitential Psalm, since the word "lule" begins the next-to-last verse of Psalm 27: "Had I not the assurance that I would enjoy the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living..." The verse ends here, incomplete. Rather than finish the thought, we choose the correct path. Therefore, the Psalm concludes: "Hope in the Lord. Be strong, take courage, and hope in the Lord."

LONG ISLAND

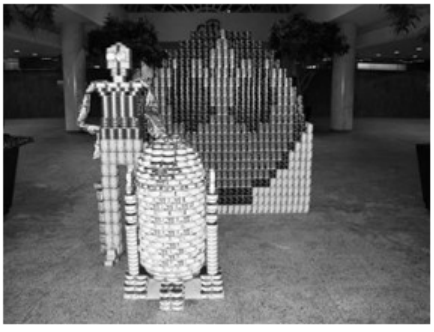
The Design/Build Competition Fighting Hunger on Long Island

Support Temple Israel Teens and Long Island Cares – Harry Chapin Food Bank

Teenagers from our temple will work with architect Harley Abrams and parent liaison Caroline Fierro, MD, in a competition that helps feed the hungry on Long Island.

The Temple Israel team needs to raise $3,000 to buy canned food they will use to build a structure in the competition, with the cans ultimately donated to the Long Island Cares–Harry Chapin Food Bank, for distribution in our area.

It's a great cause! Let's help our teens help local people in need. Donations can be made to Temple Israel of Riverhead in support of this project.



"These are the Droids You Are Looking For"
Rosenbaum Design Group
2015 Juror's Favorite

Canstruction is an international charity competition in which architects, engineers, and contractors compete to design and build giant structures made entirely from full cans of food. At the close of the competition all food is donated to food banks all across the world. The structures go on display to the public as a giant art exhibition, and the cost of admission: just one can of food. The Canstruction Long Island competition fights hunger right here on Long Island! The 2016 Exhibit will be open to the public October 28 - November 13, 2016, 8 am - 6 pm everyday at RXR Plaza, Uniondale, NY.

Dear Fellow Congregant:

Looking forward to the High Holy Days, we thought you would like an explanation of Temple Israel's High Holy Day ticket process.

The Temple offers High Holy Day tickets at reasonable costs to those who support Temple Israel and Judaism by being or becoming dues-paying members.

According to the Temple's long-standing practice, we make High Holy Day seats available at no charge to needy individuals and to full-time college students. If a member or non-member of Temple Israel is demonstrably in financial straits, we willingly make special arrangements.

To be courteous and fair to everyone, we ask that you consider the following information when ordering your tickets:

1. Each person attending High Holy Day services must have a ticket. Tickets are issued for specific seats (as in a theater), and you are expected to occupy the seat designated on your ticket.

2. Tickets are non-transferable.

3. Inter-married Spouse Members and Individual Members may purchase tickets for themselves, their spouses and children at the member rate.

4. Each year, all but a few seats are reserved in advance; please do not assume that an unoccupied seat is an available seat.

5. Tickets cannot be purchased for non-relatives at the member rates.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation in adhering to the spirit of our ticket process. We are all working diligently to make our High Holy Day services meaningful and dignified.

If you have further questions, please call the temple office, 631 727-3191.

Kosher Food For Our Events

Bagel Patch, in Patchogue, frequently provides the food for our special events. The Best Yet Market on Route 58 carries pareve cookies and cakes. BJ's and Costco also have pareve cookies in their bakeries.

Beach Bakery, in Westhampton Beach, is also under kosher supervision.

Our Judaica Shop

If you need Shabbat or holiday items for yourself, or for a gift, you will find them right in the Temple. Our Judaica Shop boasts a large inventory of beautiful items, many of them displayed in the Social Hall's glass cases. Kiddush cups, glass platters, Shabbat-To-Go, kipot, Seder and matzoh plates, menorahs, children's books and toys, cookbooks, and candlesticks are all there.

Phyllis Van Dyne operates the Temple's Shop, acquiring new items several times a year. She will also fill special orders; if you see something you'd like, she can get it for you. Or, if you need ideas for a gift, she will be happy to suggest something in your price range, perfect for your occasion and recipient. We know what it takes to make a strong Jewish community.
Doing our job well is just the beginning.

We believe to be a good funeral director, you should serve the community in times of growth and happiness as well as times of grief. It's not surprising we've served the Jewish community for over 100 years. How we've served is the surprising part. David Rubin and his entire staff work tirelessly in serving the Jewish community, but then, that's part of our philosophy and tradition.
We believe to be a good funeral director, you should serve and give back to the community.

School Life Hacks:

☺Freeze a wet sponge that doubles as an anti-soggy icepack.
Instead of using icepacks, which might soak the lunch contents thanks to condensation, freeze a wet sponge. Because the sponge absorbs liquids, it won't leak while in the lunch box.

☺You've got crumbs, dust and yucky stuff making the keys stick on your computer.
Clean out the gunk with the sticky end of a post-it note to get your keyboard squeaky clean.

☺Color code your notebooks and folders to help you quickly find your materials for class.

Color the pages on the side of your notebook to be able to know which book to grab for class, without taking them all out of your desk.

Back-to- School Jokes:

Why did the M&M go to school?

☺Because it really wanted to be a Smartie.

Who is the King of all school supplies?

☺The Ruler.

What did one calculator say to the other calculator?

☺"You can always count on me!"
