Rabbi Michael Rascoe

The story goes that at Fort Custer in Michigan, a young Protestant soldier urgently needed a chaplain. Since the Protestant chaplain was on leave, the Catholic chaplain went to see him. The soldier, upon seeing him, became quite anxious. "Father," he said, "I appreciate your coming to see me, but I'm Protestant. I'm not changing my faith."

The priest said with a gentle smile, "My son, I don't want to change your faith. I want your faith to change you."

Religion is both faith in God and faith in humanity, in that we are partners in the destiny of humanity. With it, the ultimate human tragedy is not suffering or even death, but despair. People throughout history have suffered all manner of torments in the belief that there is something deep and abiding in a life worth living. Martyrs, like Socrates and Rabbi Aqiva, went to their deaths with serenity because death did not summarize their lives, but affirmed the principles by which they lived. Viktor Frankl threw away the book manuscript that he smuggled into the concentration camp when he realized that it is meaning that gives us life, and explains why sometimes the most unlikely people survive and the most likely sometimes don't. Death is not the final verdict of life; it's the culmination of the life for which we live.

Religious faith requires that we unequivocally believe that we can change our lives and the lives of all humanity because of our innate dignity and potential, because we are created by God and tasked with being God's partners.

As we celebrate both Thanksgiving and Hanukkah later this month, think about how each fits into this view of religious faith.

Kol Nidre Appeal 5782

As we move into 5782, we continue to need our membership and friends to preserve the health and well-being of our beloved temple. It is a tradition in congregations to establish a Kol Nidre Appeal Fund; at Temple Israel this fund is vital to help supplement the dues and thus cover our operating expenses. Therefore, we ask each one of you, if you have not already donated, to be as generous as possible, in order that our temple may continue to meet the growing needs of the Jewish community.

Please forward your check, payable to Temple Israel Kol Nidre Fund, to: Temple Israel of Riverhead, P.O. Box 1531, Riverhead, NY 11901. You can also pay online using PayPal. Thank you.

Our rules for attending services have changed!

You can now attend Friday and Saturday services in-person, if fully vaccinated.

Reservations are still required, as is proof of vaccination, and masking.

Philanthropy • Public Service • Volunteering

We know what it takes to make a strong Jewish community.
Doing our job well is just the beginning.

We believe to be a good funeral director, you should serve the community in times of growth and happiness as well as times of grief. It's not surprising we've served the Jewish community for over 100 years. How we've served is the surprising part. David Rubin and his entire staff work tirelessly in serving the Jewish community, but then, that's part of our philosophy and tradition. We believe to be a good funeral director, you should serve and give back to the community.
